Do You Think For Yourself?

Or do you open your mouth like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you?

There is an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and sickness. Then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest medicine of known composition, sold by druggists for the cure of women's ills.

The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper.

The formula of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will bear the most critical examination of medical experts, for it contains no alcohol, narcotics, harmful, or habit-forming drugs, and no agent enters into it that is not highly recommended by the most advanced and leading medical teachers and authorities of their several schools of practice. These authorities recommend the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of exactly the same ailments for which this world-famous medicine is advised.

No other medicine for women's ills has any such professional endorsement as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has received. In the unqualified recommendation of each of its several ingredients by scores of leading medical men of all the schools of practice, is such an endorsement not worthy of your consideration?

A booklet of ingredients, with numerous authoritative professional endorsements by the leading medical authorities of this country, will be mailed free to any one sending name and address with request for same. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nervous Strength, or Nervous Weakness—nothing more. Fortify, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden, tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, aching heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is also directed to these weak and ailing nerve centers. It builds their strength; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

The New York police are again confronted with a murder mystery in the Italian quarter. This last murder is the most atrocious one and was committed in the Little Italy section—the lower East Side of Harlem. The victim was Epifanio Argona. He was slain in his tailoring shop at 339 east One Hundred and Seventh street. Argona was hacked to pieces. Nineteen stab wounds were found on his body. A section of his body was cut away in a circle six inches in diameter, and this portion was carried away from the place.

The police are at work on the case, and spent all day yesterday in an effort to locate a woman who had worked in Argona's shop. The police learned that she was married a month ago and that her new husband bore malice toward Argona.

The employers of the place which the police rounded up talked a great deal about the woman and how she was favored by Argona. None could tell where she lived, with the exception of Francisco Spilro, who came to the station-house of his own accord, and told a lot of things about the woman and Argona. He knew where she lived, so he told the police, he knew her husband and could take the police right to the par.

Detectives started out with him, and they got about four blocks away from the station when a great change came over Spilro. He seemed to have been stricken dumb. He did not know anything. He began to feign that he did not understand English, although he had talked in this language with a glib tongue at the station-house. The police tried to coax him out of his trance, but it was of no avail. The police were satisfied that Spilro had seen someone on the streets and got a sign to keep his mouth shut. When they were convinced that there was no use of trying to get Spilro to do anything for them, they did what was the natural thing for them to do—they took Mr. Spilro to the station and locked him up as a suspicious person.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main, says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation. It saves more than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisis, stops hemorrhage of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

ALLEGED DYNAMITE PLOT.

Out of the political fight for the position of warden of the State penitentiary at Folsom, Cal., has come the startling story of a desperate convict plot to dynamite the iron gates of the prison and to hold Mrs. Yell, wife of the warden, as a hostage. More startling still is the information of Warden Archibald Yell that former Captain of the Guards, R. J. Murphy, was cognizant of the prisoners' conspiracy.

The story of the plot and the charges made by Warden Yell have come to light since it was announced that R. J. Murphy, now postmaster at Folsom, was a candidate for office of prison warden. Yell's term of office will expire on December 1, and at that time the prison directors will appoint a successor.

In telling of the prison break that was planned by the convicts Warden Yell does not directly accuse his former captain of guards. He states that dynamite was found in a storeroom over which Murphy had charge. He further avers that three convicts confessed to the plot, and that as a result of his investigation he dismissed Captain Murphy from the guarding force. He adds that Murphy's aspirations for a wardenship prompted him to attempt to discredit his administration.

BIRTHDAY OF KING OF SIAM.

King Chulalongkorn, of Siam, on Saturday invited all Homburg to join him in celebrating his birthday. Champagne and red and white wines of other descriptions were served at the Kurhaus without any limit, it being arranged by the chief minister of the visiting king that each person who paid a trifling fee should become temporarily a member of the Kurhaus and be entitled to three bottles of wine, one each of champagne and white and red wine, while in the grounds of the Kurhaus three pavilions were erected where free beer was distributed to all comers.

The king decreed that this celebration should continue at his expense for three Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc.

A weak Stomach, causing indigestion, a weak Heart with palpitation of intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail sample free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

You may buy coffee which costs you a trifle less than Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee, but you really pay more for it and do not get as good coffee.

days. He is also distributing large sums of money to the poor, through the local benevolent societies and the city authorities, and at night he gave a banquet to six hundred persons.

The daily outlay of King Chulalongkorn in normal times, while traveling, is about $3,000 for the hotel bill of himself and his suite. It is presumed that the celebration of his birthday will cost $250,000, as the managers of the Kurhaus have been hastily gathering in wine by the carload from neighboring cities. It is estimated that the king of Siam has already spent $1,500,000 in Germany alone.

WANTS RICH TO HAVE LARGE FAMILIES.

Clad in a flowing gown, Mrs. Annie Besant, president of the Theosophical Society, arrived at Boston from Chicago Saturday in company with Mrs. J. P. Farley, of Brooklyn. In an interview she was asked if she approved of President Roosevelt's ideas of race suicide. She said: "Yes, I do. I think it is a fatal mistake to restrict the output of humanity to any extent. I still adhere to my views, however, regarding the poorer classes. I think there should be a restriction among the poorer classes for economic and educational reasons." She said she approved of large families among the wealthy. When asked if the soul of Madame Blavatsky had been transferred to her, Besant said that it had, but declined to say with whom she had associated in her past existence.
